

Children Today's Eco House
Long Beach, California

Children Today's EcoHouse is a state of the art, environmentally friendly daycare facility.

It provides education and fosters early children development services for homeless and abused children ages 6 weeks to 5 years in Long Beach. The staff and children from the two existing leased facilities will be transferred to the new, permanent, LEED Gold facility. Studio One Eleven programmed thoughtful and sustainable design elements throughout the facility, encouraging play and active lifestyles both indoor and out. Client: Children Today, Inc.
